AROUND

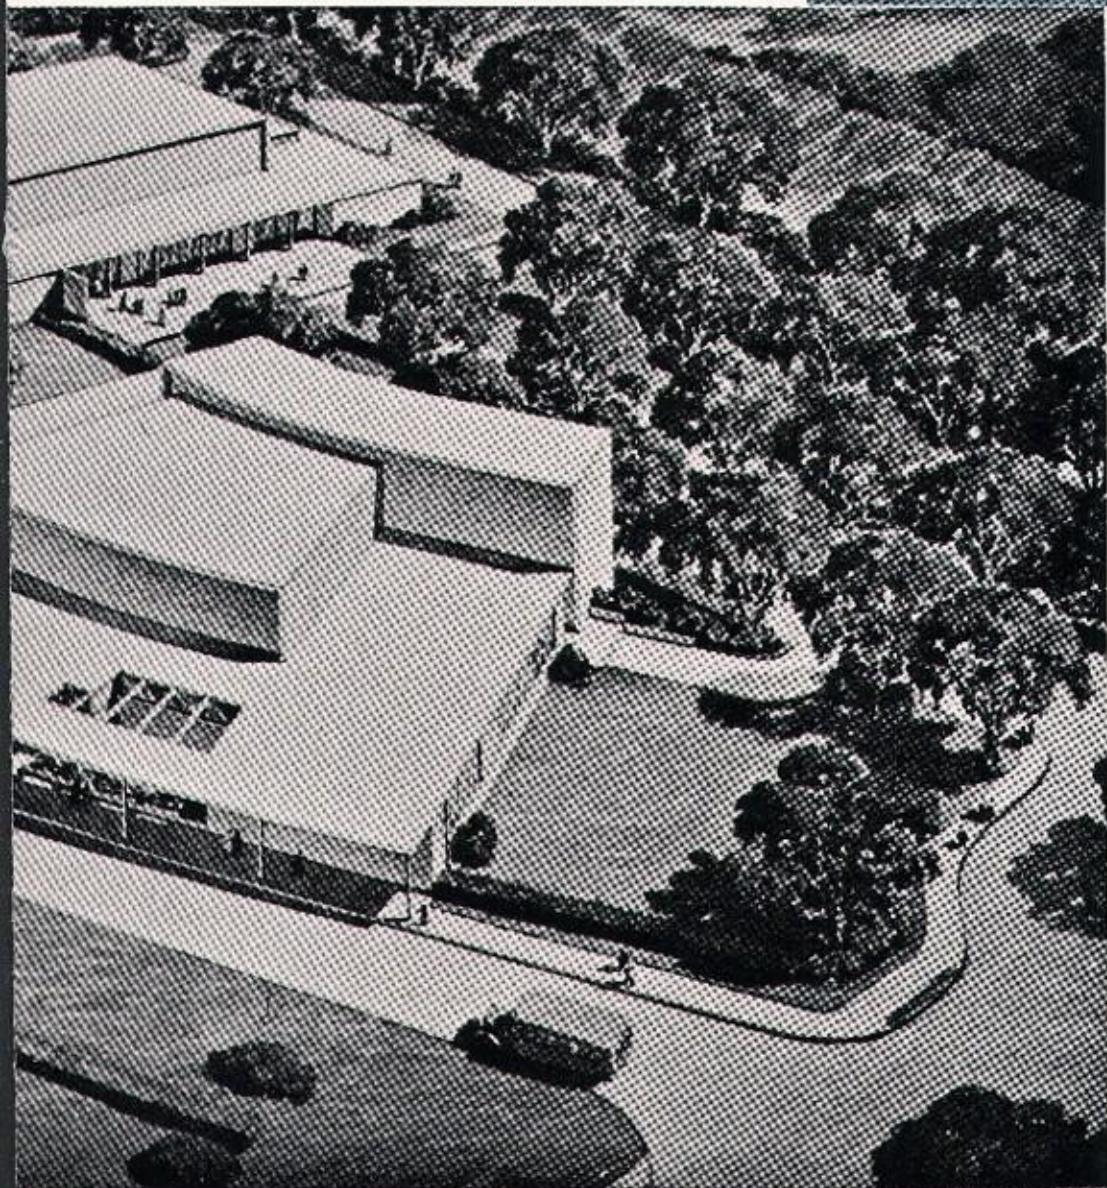

As we exchange OUR WORLD for the WORLD of the FUTURE may we reflect upon our experiences of the past three years.

We have lived in a compact world of preparation, whether they were specialized or general, science or the arts; here we found the keys to open the doors of the future.

May we hope that OUR WORLD of the FUTURE will afford us the same opportunities and pleasures that were found AROUND OUR WORLD.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Mr. Herbert F. Cobley, the chief executive of OUR WORLD, assumes the responsibilities of correlating the programs of the Area Joint Schools from kindergarten through twelfth grade. These programs are developed to benefit those who wish to further their education and those who will terminate formal education with graduation.

Through the efforts of our chief executive we have been successful in the transition from a Joint School District to a Union District, which will become effective at the end of the school year.

HERBERT F. COBLEY

FREDERICK C. BENFIELD

The Secretary-General of OUR WORLD is the principal, Mr. Benfield, who is responsible for the supervision of curriculum, advising the student body and general operation of the plant. Another of Mr. Benfield's many duties is that of coordinating the viewpoints of parents, students and teachers.

In November, 1958, the Nazareth Area Senior High School culminated a successful evaluation under the guidance of our principal, Mr. Benfield.

MAPPING OUR ROUTE TO THE FUTURE

Mr. Joseph J. Walker, director of recruitment for the Pennsylvania Civil Service Commission, informs a group of boys as to jobs available after graduation in the field of civil service and government in Pennsylvania.

Mr. Reichard, guidance counselor, aids students in selecting their vocations by administering a series of testing programs.

Guidance Counselor, Robert Reichard, informs Charles Rhoades about scholarships, both national and local, available to high school students.

The guidance program, under the direction of Mr. Robert Reichard, includes a series of career conferences, testing programs, and individual guidance conferences. Students are given every opportunity to inquire about future college and vocational plans. With the aid of our guidance counselor, we the students are able to make wise decisions affecting our plans for the future.

REVIEWING GLOBAL EVENTS

Mr. Zell discusses the family and the home with his Problems of Democracy class.

Mrs. Zell and students examine American History projects related to the areas of discussion.

Under the direction of Mr. Schmoyer the World History class prepares for a panel discussion.

Students of Our World in the Social Studies are given an opportunity to understand the past, present, and future of the world that lies about them. This understanding not only concerns itself with the individual but also local, state, national, and world events.

EXPLORING

The three sciences, Chemistry, Physics, and Biology are required academic subjects for students planning to enter college or schools of nursing. All three explain many of the strange phenomena of everyday life.

Mr. Shekletski demonstrates the use of the spectroscope in identifying an element to Joseph Brobston and the chemistry class.

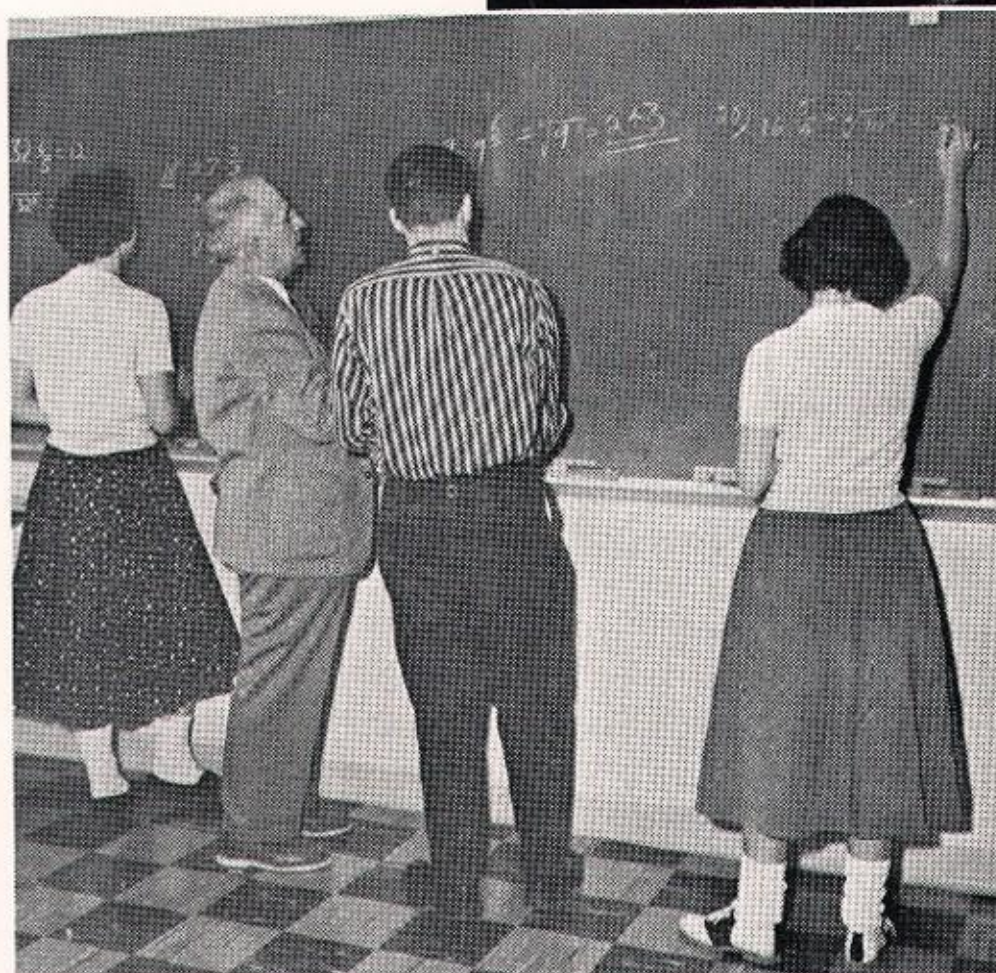

Mr. Kostenbader explains the use of the oscilloscope, a device which shows visually the variations of electric current, to Gloria Mitman, Mary Jane Altemose, Bruce Burley, and Darrell Mengel.

As Mr. Roth looks on, Stewart Noble explains hereditary characteristics to the class.

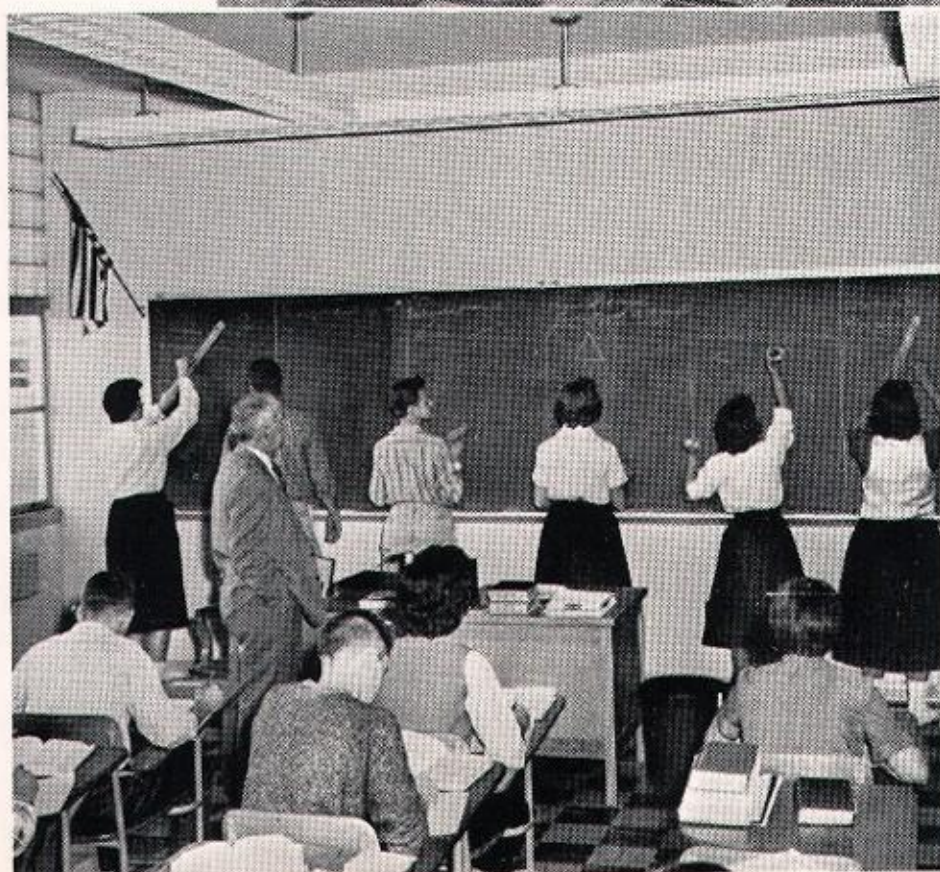

THE SCIENCES

Mathematics, the science of numbers, is presented to the students of Our World in the form of Geometry, Algebra and Trigonometry all for the purpose of pursuit of further study in institutions of higher learning.

As students listen, Miss Lazorack explains how to find the area and volume of a prismatic surface.

As Mr. Cump looks on, students of the Algebra II class extract the roots of given problems.

Plane Geometry students become familiar with the instruments and techniques of constructing geometric figures.

CONVERSING WITH OUR

In his English class Mr. Harding answers questions concerning parts of speech.

As the class listens attentively, Myrna Easton gives her report on the Roman family.

Mrs. Brooks helps her students to understand general literature.

FELLOW CITIZENS

By reading the compositions of others, senior English students learn different methods and techniques of expression.

In our foreign language program, the students are well enough acquainted with German and Latin so that he is able to understand the basic principles of the language. It also prepares the students for further study of these languages.

The German class participates in a weekly vocabulary test under the supervision of Mrs. McGonigle.

While Edward Temos reads a description of himself, Mr. Knecht and a junior English class listen for errors in grammatical construction.

MANAGING OUR

Mrs. Kolessar and students look on as problem in General Business is solved.

To increase their Math ability, students, under the direction of Mr. Felver, begin their assignment.

Mrs. Graver teaches students the fundamentals of office machines.

The Commercial Course prepares its students to either enter the business world upon graduation or continue their education in the business field.

Many commercial students go into offices as secretaries, stenographers, accountants, or typists immediately after graduation. Others take short specialized courses for a short period of time.

There are many high-rated business colleges which commercial students enter preparing them for business administration and management, professional secretarial work, government work, accounting, and various other fields.

CREATING PRODUCTS FOR

Students are seen working in a plastic media, shaping by hand, on the potters wheel and finishing clay products.

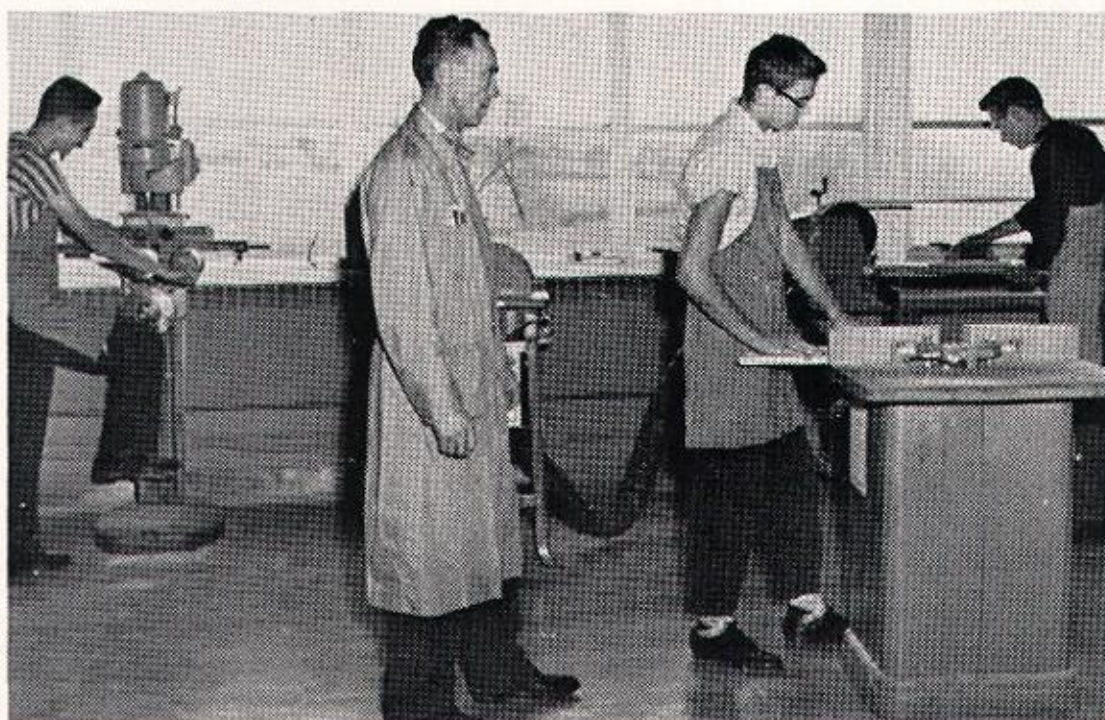

Metals are also used for creative experience. Here we have students in the foreground polishing and finishing metal repousse pieces, while those in the background work on the polishing wheel.

Under the direction of Mrs. Morin, Gloria Krantz and Carol Gower, prepare baked goods for the oven.

OUR ECONOMIC ADVANCEMENT

Industrial Arts prepares students for various manual trades. It is especially helpful to those who plan to begin working immediately upon graduation from high school. The shop is equipped with modern tools and machinery.

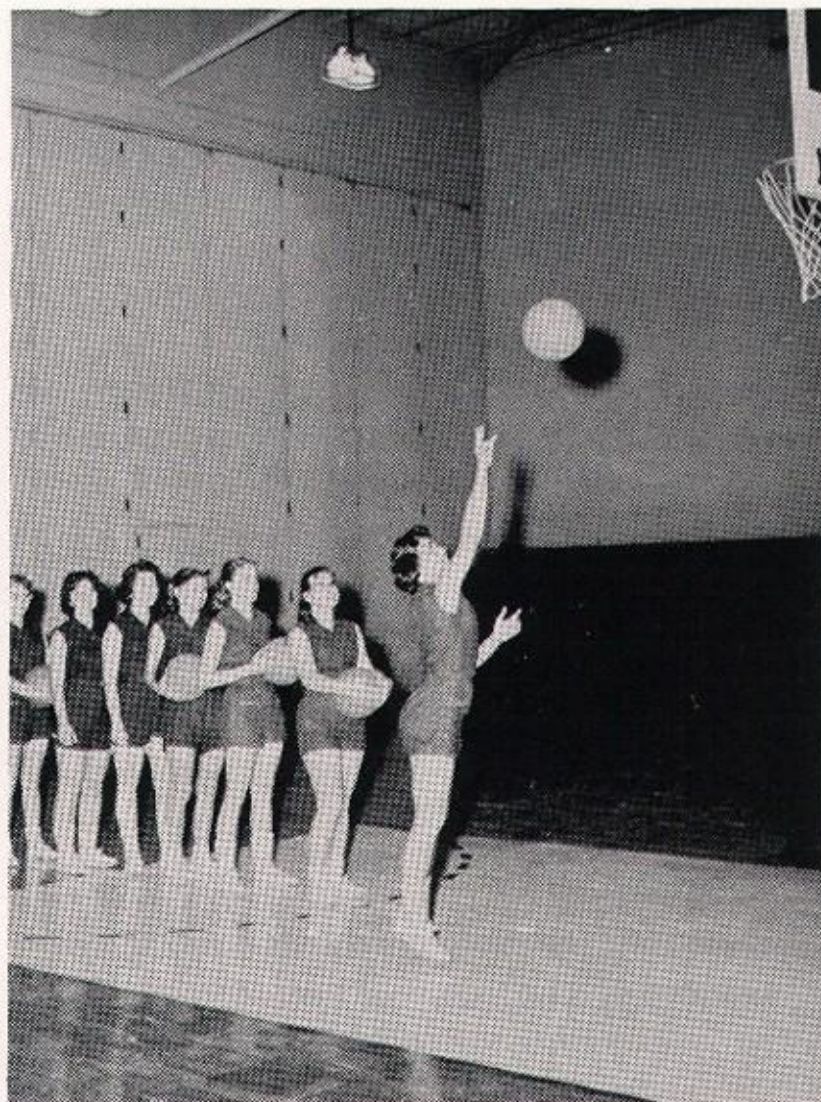

In the foreground Jerry Flank uses the planner, while in the background Harold Frace and Ronald Edelman demonstrate their skills on the lathe.

While Mr. Brock supervises Walter Metzgar operates the circular saw. Left rear we find Morris Ginder using the drill press and to the right Eugene Berger uses the belt sander.

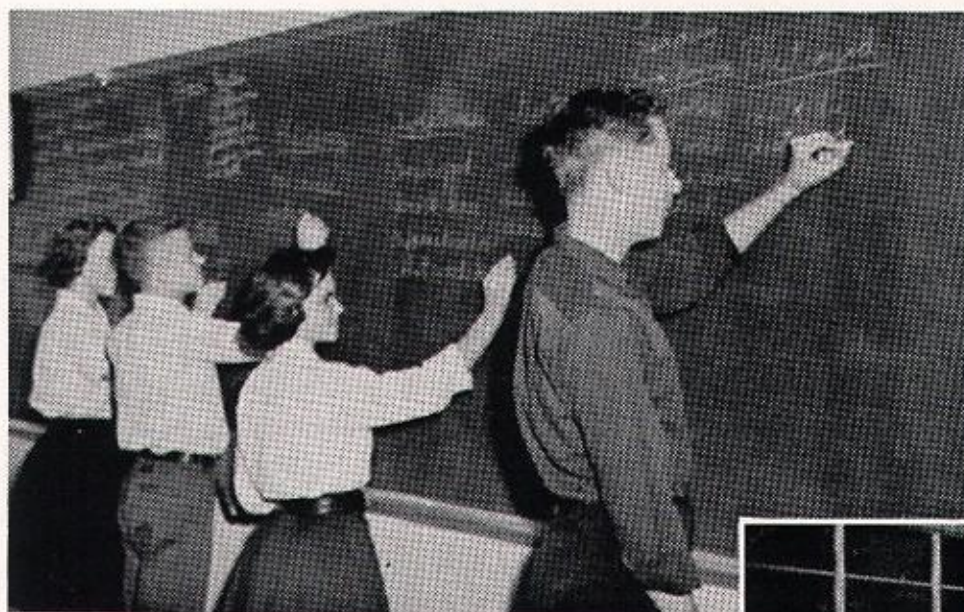

Mrs. Morin discusses pattern instructions with Gloria Buss, while behind them Kay Schaffer is busy finishing her project on one of the modern sewing machines.

AIDING OUR EXISTENCE

Joan Solt practices her one hand push up shot as others wait their turn.

As Mr. Leh and the other members of the boys' gym class watch, six of the boys climb the ropes.

In health class we learn how to keep well and fit by means of proper health habits.

To aid students in obtaining their driver's license, Nazareth High School provides a Driver's Education Class.

Grattison Quinter points out the position of the air filter to Maryann Metz during Driver Education class.

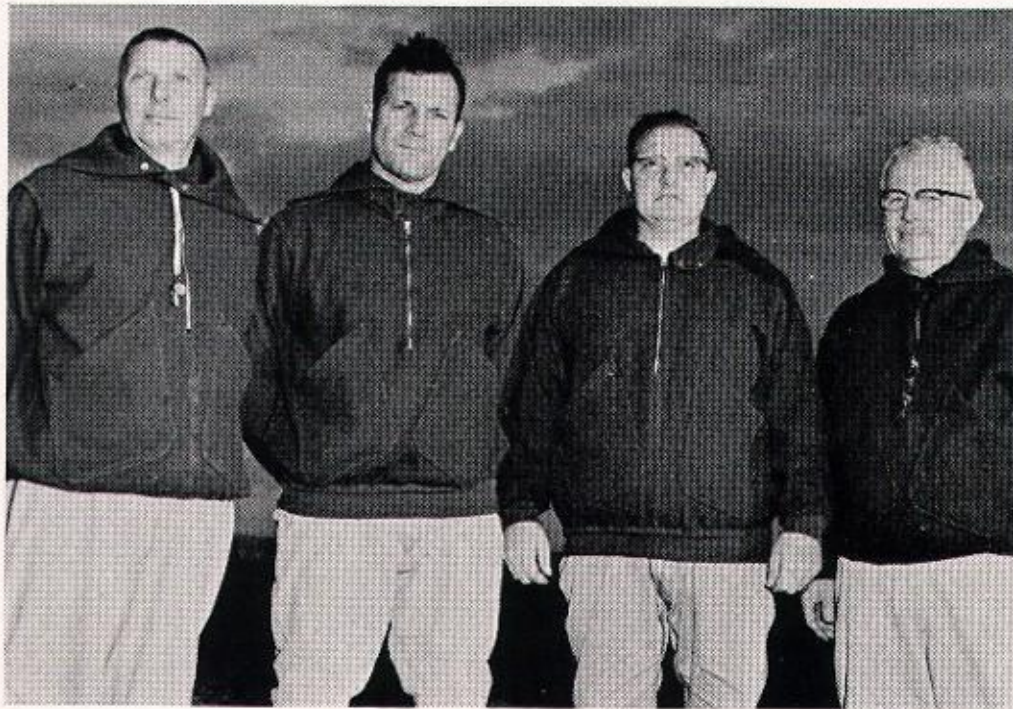

Our existence depends not only on improving our minds but also in strengthening our bodies. Competitive sports enable students to practice cooperation and skills.

Several students of a sophomore health class display their knowledge of vitamins.

During the 1958 season, the Nazareth Blue Eagles chalked up a 5-5 record, finishing third in the Lehigh-Northampton League.

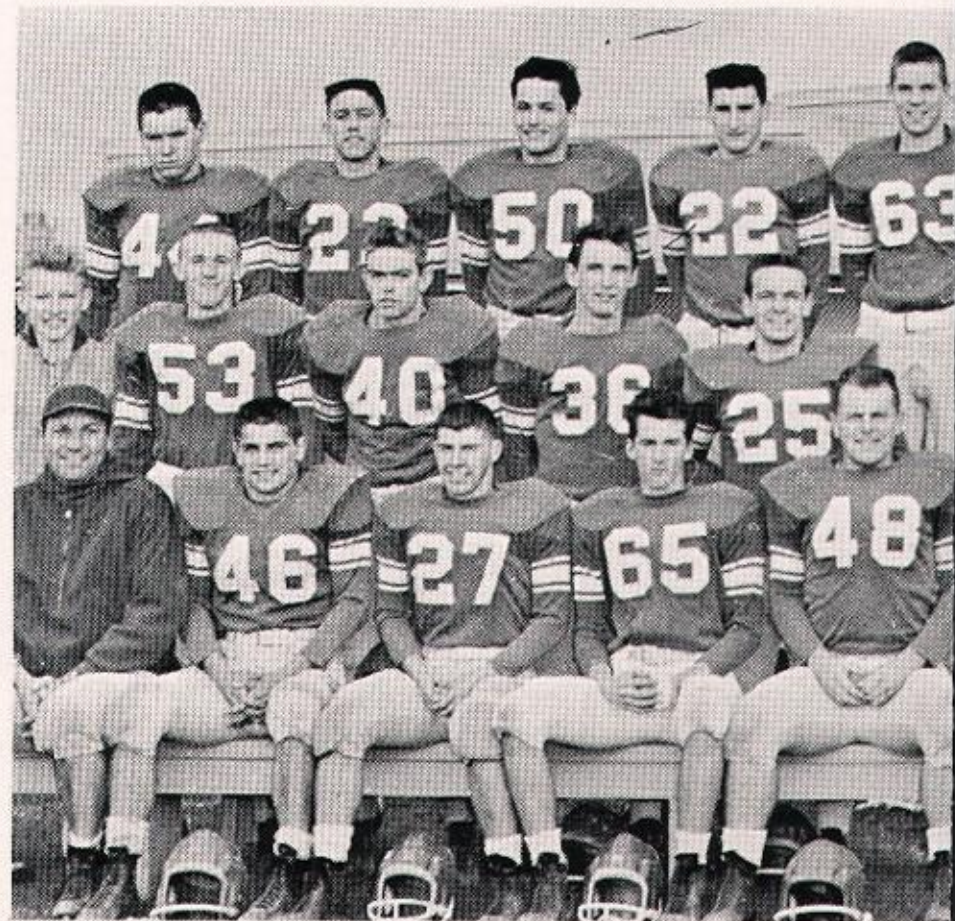

In the season's opening game, Nazareth was defeated by Governor Mifflin, 13-7, in a game played under the lights. Mickey Bill scored Nazareth's only touchdown on a quarterback sneak.

One week later, Hellertown, the eventual champions of the Lehigh-Northampton League, proved to be too strong for the Blue Eagles and posted a 21-0 victory.

The Blue Eagles were victorious in their first home game against Whitehall, coming off the field with a close 13-12 victory. The scoring honors were shared by Lee Todora, who scored on a 63 yard run, and Arnold Einfalt, who took Mickey Bill's pass and scored from the Whitehall 21 yard line.

The next Saturday, Nazareth overpowered Parkland, emerging victoriously with a 27-12 triumph. All Nazareth touchdowns were scored by Jeff Marsh, the fullback.

The following week, Nazareth journeyed to Palmerton, where they trounced the home team 28-13. Jeff Marsh led the attack scoring three of the four touchdowns. Mickey Bill scored the fourth touchdown from 2 yards out. Bill Shook's four placement attempts were all perfect.

LEHIGH-NORTHAMPTON LEAGUE

Plodding through the mud and rain at Pen Argyl, the Blue Eagles extended their winning streak to four by defeating the heavily-favored Pen Argyl team 19-6. Marsh again scored all Nazareth touchdowns.

The Blue Eagles' four game winning streak came to an end one week later when Bangor defeated Nazareth on the Eagles' field, the final tally being 14-6. Roger Gulick was on the receiving end of a fifty-five yard pass play that resulted in Nazareth's only score.

BLUE EAGLES COMPLETE THRILLING

Next on the schedule was a strong Northampton eleven. The game remained even throughout the first period, but gradually the Konkrete Kids displayed their strength and clinched the victory 45-20.

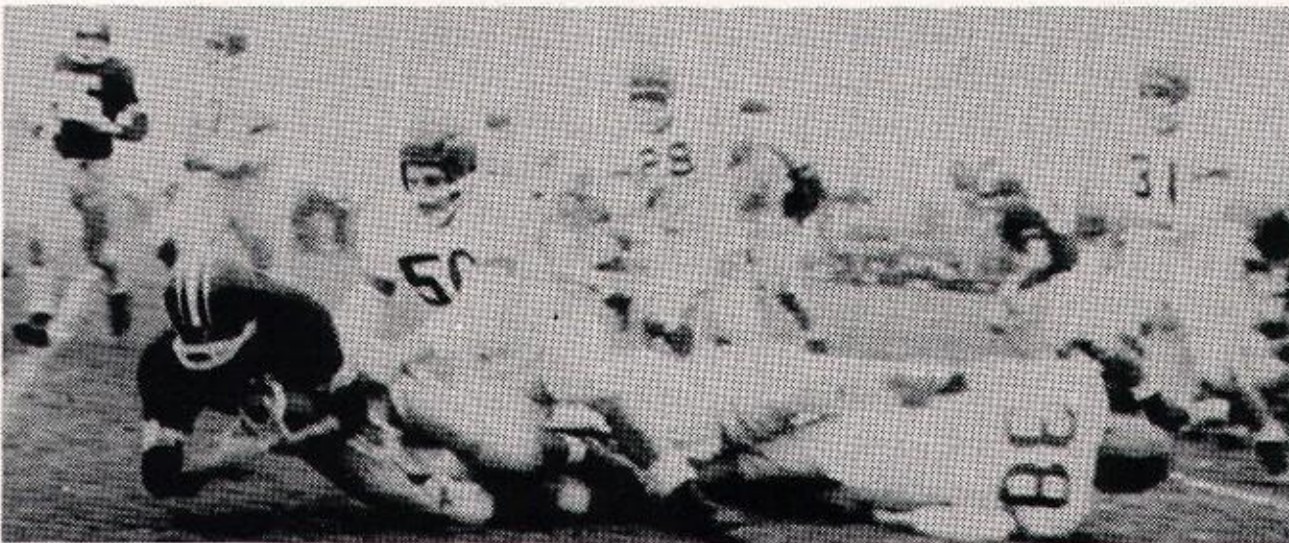

Richard Garr breaks through for yardage in the Northampton game with the aid of a defensive block by Ronald Gori.

On the bleak and cold Saturday that followed, the Blue Eagles downed East Stroudsburg on the Nazareth gridiron 7-6. William Shook provided the winning point with his perfect placement.

Journeying to Cottingham stadium, Easton, Pa., on Thanksgiving Day, the Nazareth Blue Eagles were riding high on hopes for victory, despite the fact that the Wilson Warriors were a heavy favorite. After a relatively slow first quarter, the action thickened. Wilson, led by fullback Ron Heinrich, bulldogged its way deep into Nazareth territory and finally scored.

After a fine display of talent by both bands, the contest was resumed. Midway through the third quarter, Nazareth was deep in Wilson territory. After numerous attempts to score proved unsuccessful, quarterback David Wambold rolled out to the right and completed a pass to Richard Garr, who romped untouched into the end zone for the Blue Eagles only score.

GRIDIRON SEASON

Wilson scored again in the fourth period to wrap up a 20-6 victory.

The Blue Eagles, spurred on by a loyal cheering section and with team spirit in evidence throughout the season, were successful in five of their ten games.

At a post-season meeting, Richard Frey and Gerald Zimitz, were elected honorary co-captains for the 1958 season.

Coached by Robert Weiss, our basketball squad, building for the future, did comparatively well against rugged competition. The Blue Eagle limped in with a record of one win against 21 losses. The little Eagles did better with a 11 and 10 record. High scorer of the season was our six-foot-four senior center, Thomas Buss, who was also the best from the foul line with a total of 72 points and a 65% average.

From the floor he had a total of 262 points and a 38% average. He was followed by Kenneth Butz with 176 points from the floor, completing a total of 41 points from the foul line.

After dropping the first five contests, the cagers broke into the win column by beating East Stroudsburg 57 to 51. They then continued to drop the remaining fifteen games. The cagers could not seem to click and drop the necessary baskets when they were needed.

BRINGING CROWN TO OUR WORLD

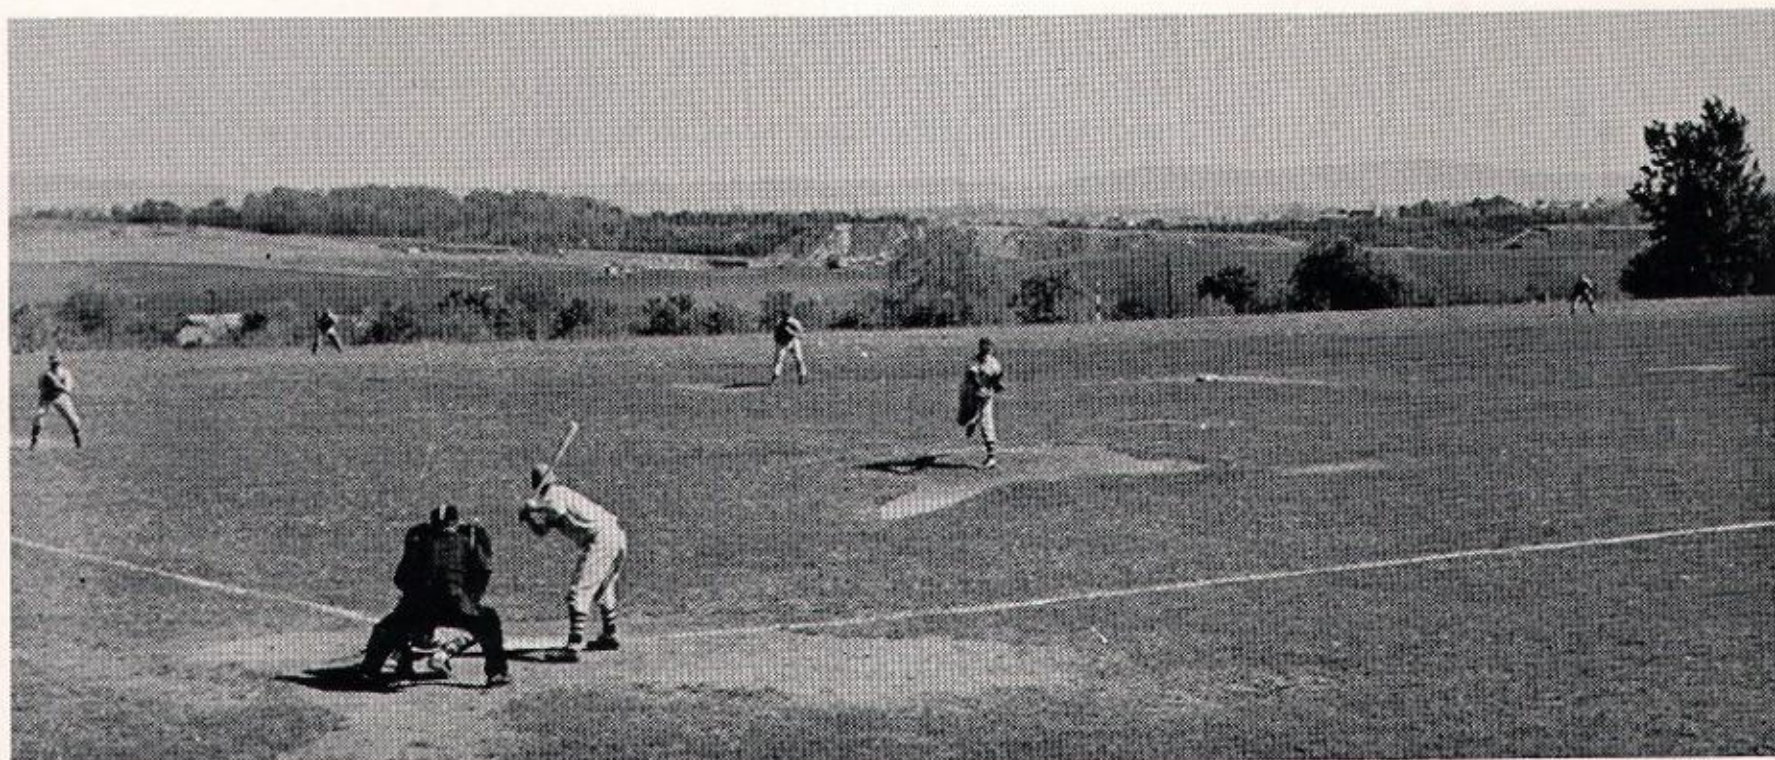

Even though five positions had to be filled, Nazareth had a better than average season in 1958. The record was 5 wins, 6 loses, and 1 tie. Because of a prospect of seven returning lettermen, the chance of a better season in 1959 is very good.

Starting the season by beating Whitehall 3-2, the Eagles were then beaten 5-3 by Pen Argyl. The third game of the season wound up in a tie with Bangor, the game being called on account of darkness.

The Eagles lost the next three games, one of which we lost to Bangor by a score of 5-4 in the last of two extra innings. Nazareth came back and won the next three by good margins.

Nazareth lost its chance in the play-offs, when in the last game of the season, Parkland beat Nazareth by a score of 4-3.

Thomas Buss, who turned in a pitching record of 5 wins and 4 loses, led the squad in pitching.

Starting the season by beating the Alumni 71-28, the Nazareth Blue Eagle Cindermen then finished the season with one other win, which was the Whitehall meet.

Again this year Larry Mengel broke school records. The coincidence being they were the records he set the year before. In 1958, he threw the discus 132 $\frac{1}{2}$ ", bettering his old record of 128'1". Also he threw the shot put 47'8", as against 45'10 $\frac{1}{2}$ ", in 1957. He was high scorer with 46 points.

BRINGS FULL HOUSE

On November 21 and 22 the Senior Class presented "Time Out for Ginger," a comedy in three acts, directed by Robert A. Harding.

The setting for this play was the living room of the Carol residence. It concerns a red-headed tomboy, played by Judy Washko, who upsets the Carol household when she goes out for the football team. As a result of this, her father, Thomas O'Sullivan, almost loses his job and becomes a public spectacle because he took his daughter's part. At the finale the tomboy conformed to a perfect young lady.

The play was presented to a capacity audience and was well received.

THROUGH SONG

The combined Glee Clubs sing the final numbers titled "Song is the expression of brotherhood and the determination to remain the Land of the Free!"

The Spring Concert by the Mixed Glee Club, Mixed Ensemble, Girls' and Boys' Glee Club, and the Girls' Ensemble was held April 10 and 11.

The program, "To Song," began with a prelude, "Let There Be Song" followed by songs of devotion, such as "The Holy City." Also featured were a group of rollicking folk songs sung by Carol Roth, Carl Krein, and Richard Frey. The audience was then entertained by an old fashioned square dance and songs by the Mixed Ensemble. A barbershop quartet harmonized with a traditional 20's song, "Coney Island Babe." Richard Miller, Carol Wynne, and Ronald Houser added variety to the program with songs of romance and inspiration. Expressing brotherhood and patriotism, "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" was the last presentation by the combined Glee Clubs.

EXHIBITING ARTISTIC ABILITY

The Arts and Craft Club members, under the direction of Miss Clute, work on individual or group projects in ceramics, copper, jewelry, etc. During the year they display their projects in the entrance hall case to enhance Our World.

Joe Steltzman, while putting the finishing touches on his pin, demonstrates soldering.

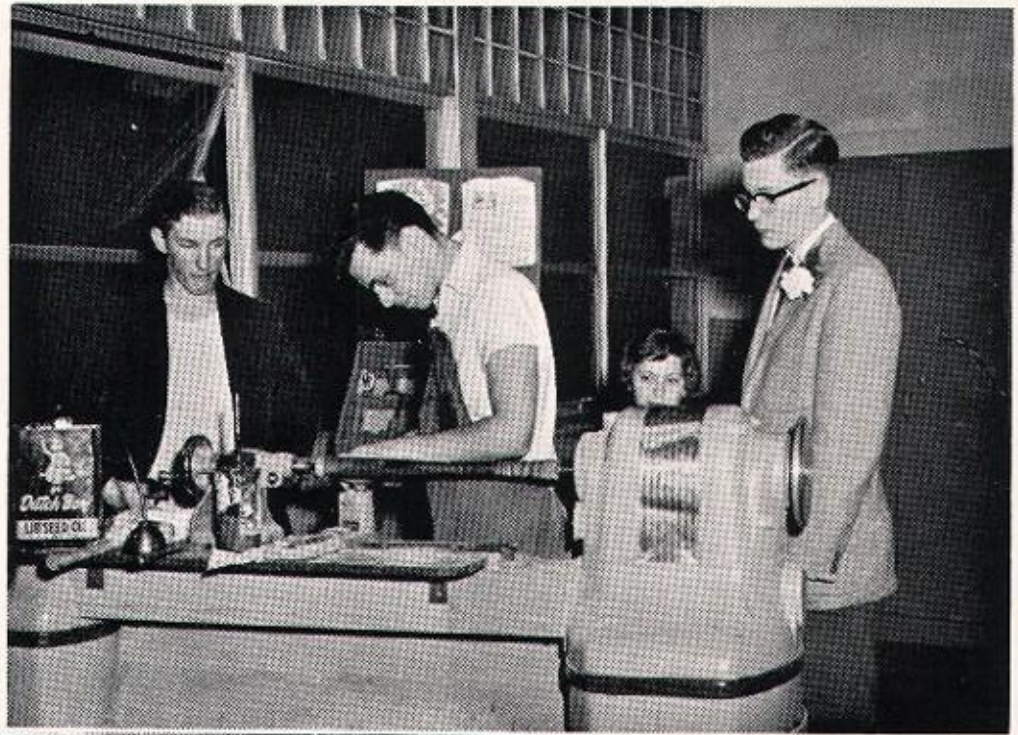

Two visitors at the Art and Industrial Art exhibit look at realistic pictures displayed in the hall.

As Sal Calandra poses Art students draw his facial features.

AND MANUAL SKILLS

Under the supervision of Mr. Brock, members of the Shop Club have extra time to work on their projects. These projects consist of all types of furniture, which are displayed in Our World during the annual Industrial Arts Exhibit.

John Feretti puts finishing touches to his project on the lathe.

With Mr. Brock and a group of visitors watching, Thomas Sleeman shows the technique of glueing.

Duane Herbst demonstrates to a group the correct way to put on or take off the blade of the circular saw.

MODELING LATEST STYLES

Going to a party? Brenda Werner and Patricia Richards model their semi-formal dresses.

Alice Achenbach and Mary Ann Metz enjoy the comfort of their sportswear.

Each year the Homemaking Department has a fashion show, in which the Homemaking students model the garments they have made. Last year's theme, —Fashion Bouquet, well describes the wedding gown and bridesmaid's dress, both of which Marilyn Meyers made in Home Economic class.

Party, tea, or church? Nancy Filchner, Laura Klotz, Judy Shook, and Gloria Krantz model suitable styles.

VIEWING OUR TALENTS

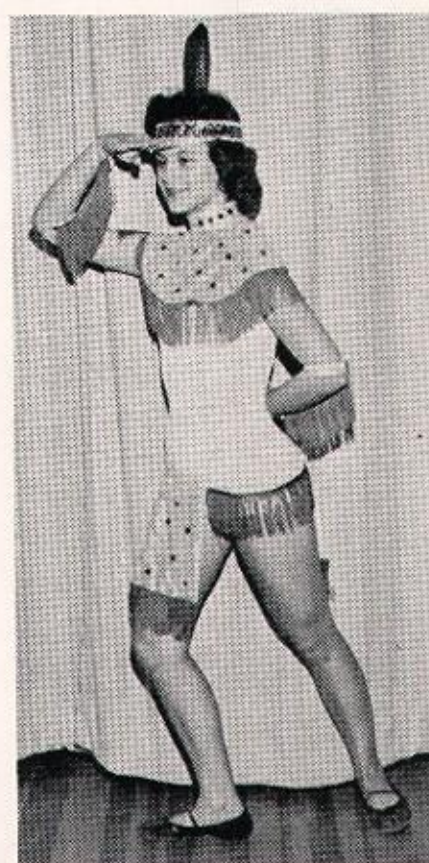

THE RHYTHMETTES—Elizabeth Toth, Judith Jones, Joan Solt, LaRue Sandt, Sandra Schafer, Barbara Scip, Alice Achenbach, Mary Jane Altemose, Jeannette Dollivar, and Judith Shankweiler—dance to "Nola."

Sponsored by the Student Council, the annual Talent Show was held on April 3, with Bruce Schmidt as Master of Ceremonies.

The Rhythmettes won the first prize of $10 for their dance routine to "Nola;" the Moonlighters, second prize for their Combo number, "Siboney;" Carol Kametler, third prize, for her ballet dance to "Canadian Sunset;" and the Four Sharps, fourth prize, for their vocal quartet number.

Mrs. Walter Peters, Mrs. Edwin Sawyer, Mrs. Charles Topping, Attorney Raymond DeRaymond, and Mr. Carl Remel served as judges.

THE MOONLIGHTERS—Herman Fischl, Edward Messenlehner, Bernard Molnar, Delbert Cressman, Carl Krein, and Gerald Zimitz—played "Siboney," a rhumba.

Carol Kametler did a ballet to "Canadian Sunset."

THE FOUR SHARPS—Ronald Houser, Albert Fry, Richard Frey, and Richard Miller, missing from picture—sang "It's A Sin to Tell A Lie," and "Coney Island Baby."

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The part of Our World which pays tribute to the outstanding scholastic students is the Delphian Chapter of the National Honor Society. In order to be eligible for its membership, one must attain a B average or higher for two consecutive marking periods. One of the functions of this club is a tutoring service.

Sitting: Dorothy Silfies, Mrs. McGonigle, Patricia Stimmel. Standing: Arthur Scola, Joyce Schultz, Ronald Bittner.

ORATORICAL CONTEST

Any student in Our World is eligible for this highly worthwhile contest. In participating in this contest, the student not only learns to speak before an audience, but he also gains poise and confidence. Each contestant is responsible for preparing his own speech.

GOVERNING OUR WORLD

Robert Kostenbader, Burgess, and Norlaine Roberts, Secretary, are shown as they replaced members of the town council on Saturday, January 3, 1959.

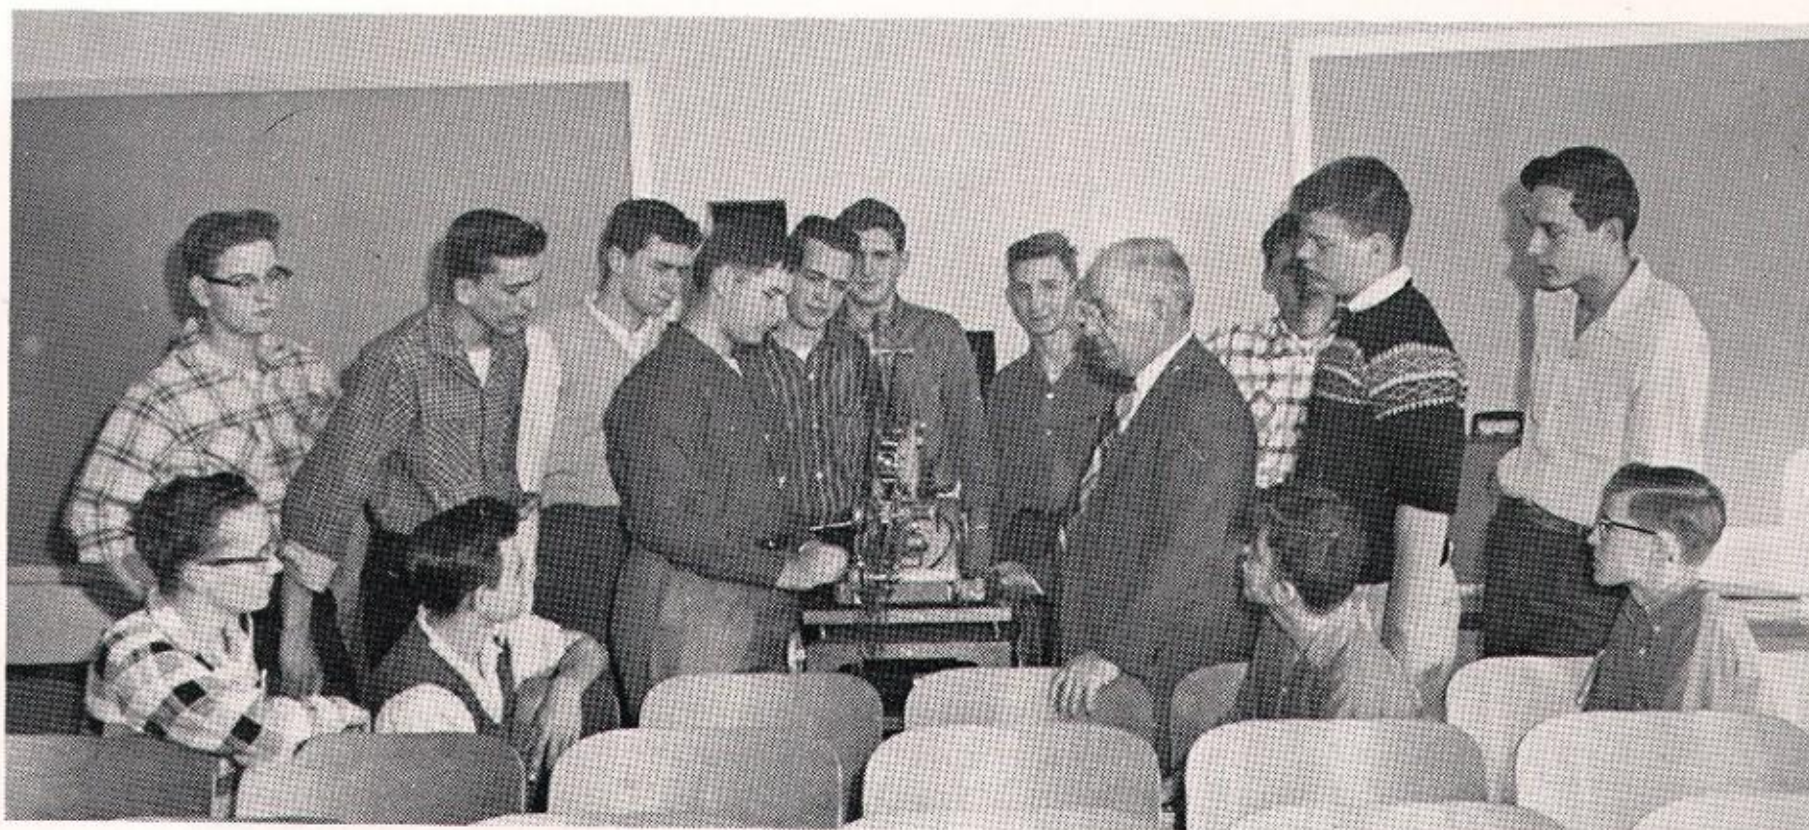

President	Robert Kostenbader
Vice President	Joseph Merola
Secretary	Norlaine Roberts
Treasurer	Sandra Browne
Advisor	Robert Reichard

Sitting: Sandra Browne, Robert Kostenbader, Norlaine Roberts. Standing: Robert Reichard, Joseph Merola.

CAPTURING HIGHLIGHTS OF OUR WORLD

Under the direction of Mr. Cump, the boys of the Projectionist Club become acquainted with the operation of the movie projector.

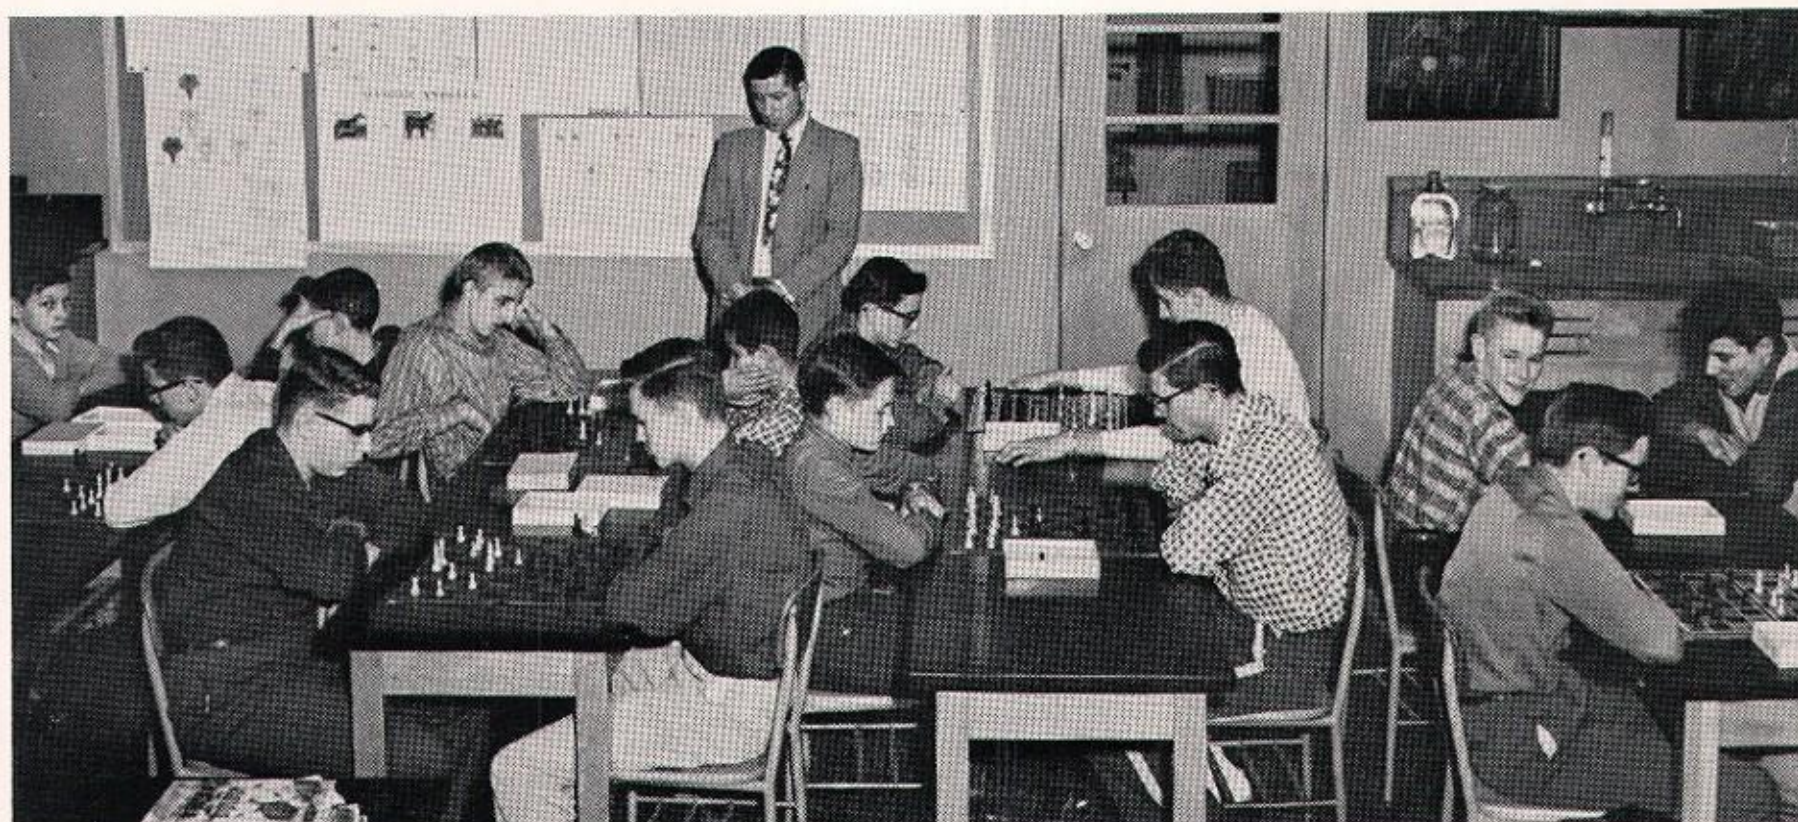

The main objective of the Projectionist Club is to teach its members how to operate the motion picture projector, enabling them to assist in the showing of films. Mr. Cump supervises this club, which meets the eighth period each Thursday.

Mr. Roth directs the Photography Club, which meets three times a week. This club teaches its members the proper methods of photographing, developing, and printing. The advanced group also takes motion pictures and projects them for the club. Each member is expected to submit an entry to the Kodak National High School Photographic Contest.

Under the supervision of Mr. Roth, James Drissel checks his negatives.

LEARNING SKILLS IN THE GAME OF CHESS

As Mr. Buck of the Junior High faculty looks on, the chess team engages an opponent in an interscholastic chess meet.

	Naz.	Opp.
Dec. 3—Easton	2	5
Dec. 17—Philipsburg	5½	1½
Dec. 18—Bethlehem	4½	2½
Jan. 7—Allentown	2½	4½
Jan. 21—Pen Argyl	7	0
Feb. 11—Wilson	3½	3½
Feb. 25—Easton	3½	3½
Mar. 4—Bethlehem	4	3
Mar. 18—Allentown	4½	2½
Mar. 24—Philipsburg	6½	½
April 8—Pen Argyl
April 15—Wilson

Mr. Harding looks on as his chess club practices for the next meet.

Having won three games, losing two, and tying one, the Chess Team completed the first half of the season in second place.

Developing the skill of maneuvering is one of the main objectives of the club. The meetings that are conducted on Tuesdays and Thursdays are for practicing this skill and others related to chess.

On Wednesdays the advanced players participate in inter-scholastic matches.

PARTICIPATING IN WORTHWHILE ACTIVITIES

Library Club members, under the direction of Miss Bordner, learn the duties of a librarian.

The Library Club members, under the direction of Miss Bordner, librarian, carry out duties such as: charging, discharging, mending books, keeping the shelves in order, and delivering overdue notices.

The Reading Club, under the supervision of Mrs. Brooks, meets the eighth period every Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. The purpose of this club is to develop basic reading skills, comprehension, and speed.

Mrs. Brooks helps Sharon Bleam as other students read pamphlets.

Under the supervision of Mrs. McGonigle, the First Aid Club members meet to practice treatments for emergencies, such as: drowning, wounds, bleeding, and poisoning.

Under the supervision of Mrs. McGonigle, members of the First Aid Club learn emergency treatments.

CREATING PHYSICAL SKILLS

Jean Stofflet concentrates on shooting for a basket.

To develop skills and good sportsmanship, the Girls' Athletic Club, directed by Miss Steward, meet during the eighth period every Wednesday and Thursday.

In Girls' Athletic Club, members participate in various sports such as: basketball, volleyball, hockey, softball, gymnastics, archery. By participating in these sports and helping the club carry out its various activities, members are able to receive an athletic letter, which requires the attainment of 900 points. Points are obtained by timing, keeping score, refereeing, and serving as captain, co-captain, or manager.

Valeria Happel blocks a forward's attempt.

Barbara Wallace guards Jean Stofflet.

BROADENING AND

The Science Fair Club and the Future Teachers of America enable students to understand the details of various vocations available in the teaching and scientific fields.

Kenneth Shook tells Mr. Kostenbader the progress of his project.

SCIENCE FAIR CLUB

The Lehigh Valley Science Fair is an opportunity for students to prepare scientific projects for competition.

Locally, Mr. Kostenbader advises students in selection and construction of these projects.

The Future Teachers of America, advised by Miss Lazorack, meet every Tuesday. With the aid of movies, class discussions, college visitations, speakers, and conferences, these students are encouraged to enter the teaching profession.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

Members of the Future Teachers of America and their sponsor Miss Lazorack.

DEVELOPING OUR HORIZONS

Through activities students broaden their perception and further understand many areas of interest which will help in the selection of a vocation that will meet specific abilities.

Good examples of these activities are the Future Homemakers of America and the Radio Club.

Students work with batteries in the Radio Club. The club is advised by Mr. Shekletski.

RADIO CLUB

The Radio Club, under the direction of Mr. Shekletski, explores radio communications, from elementary construction to complex operation. They are able to receive both domestic and foreign transmissions.

The Future Homemakers of America, advised by Mrs. Morin, offers the student an opportunity to acquaint themselves with the various fields of home economics.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

Above Mrs. Graul of the United Gas Company presents a demonstration to members of the Future Homemakers of America.

CIRCLING THE WORLD

The Dramatic Club members practice "Life of the Party."

Joseph Lopresti threatens young couple in "Itchin to be Hitched."

Kathryn Fehr, Palminia Ferretti and Shirley Hawk demonstrate knitting skills in Knitting Club, which is directed by Mrs. Bleiler.

DRAMATIC CLUB

The Dramatic Club, under the direction of Mrs. Zell, has set up a program of assemblies to be presented to the student body throughout this year. These programs consist of monologues, short two-act plays, charades, and pantomines. The club is open to students interested in presenting and producing plays. This gives the student an excellent opportunity for public appearances and speaking.

KNITTING CLUB

Students, under the direction of Mrs. Bleiler, learn the fundamentals of knitting. These students master the techniques of knitting sweaters, stoles, scarfs, socks, mittens, and hats. Finished articles are put on display in the Nazareth High School art exhibit.

OF HOBBIES

STAGECRAFT CLUB

Under the co-sponsorship of Miss Jean Clute and Andrew Brock, members of the Stagecraft Club form a vital organization of our school. Mr. Brock supervises construction of the scenery, and Miss Clute directs the setting of scenery. The girls and boys learn techniques of building and painting scenery and the arranging of furniture used for stage productions such as—plays, concerts, and assemblies.

Arranging furniture and lighting are all a part of a stagecraft member's job.

Stagecraft members construct scenery for the Glee Club Concert under the supervision of Mr. Brock.

HOMEMAKING & HOBBY CLUB

Homemaking and Hobby Club members, under Mr. Brock's direction, meet Wednesdays during the eighth period. Members develop hobbies and a fundamental knowledge of home fixtures. Club members fix lights and leaks in pipes, varnish furniture, make picture frames, napkin holders, and book ends.

Homemaking and Hobby Club members, directed by Mr. Brock, display talent in practical arts.

ALUMNI VISITS OUR WORLD

Alumni members listen attentively to the program.

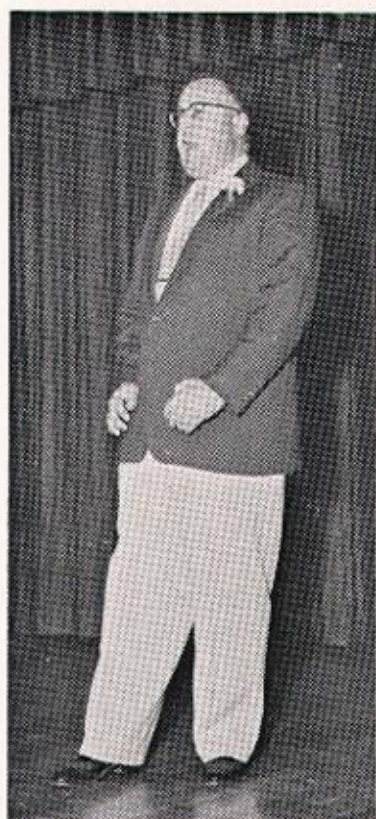

Charles Shimer, area lawyer and graduate of the Class of 1925, compared school life today with school life in his day. Mr. Shimer is a graduate of Muhlenberg College and Harvard Law School.

In the afternoon assembly Mrs. John Fraunfelder, graduate of the Class of 1925, directed the Senior band in two selections.

Leon Brong, class of 1928, rendered his vocal version of "With a Little Bit of Luck." Cecelia Snyder, a senior, sang the Negro spiritual, "Were You There."

Mrs. John Fraunfelder, alumni member, directs the Senior Band.

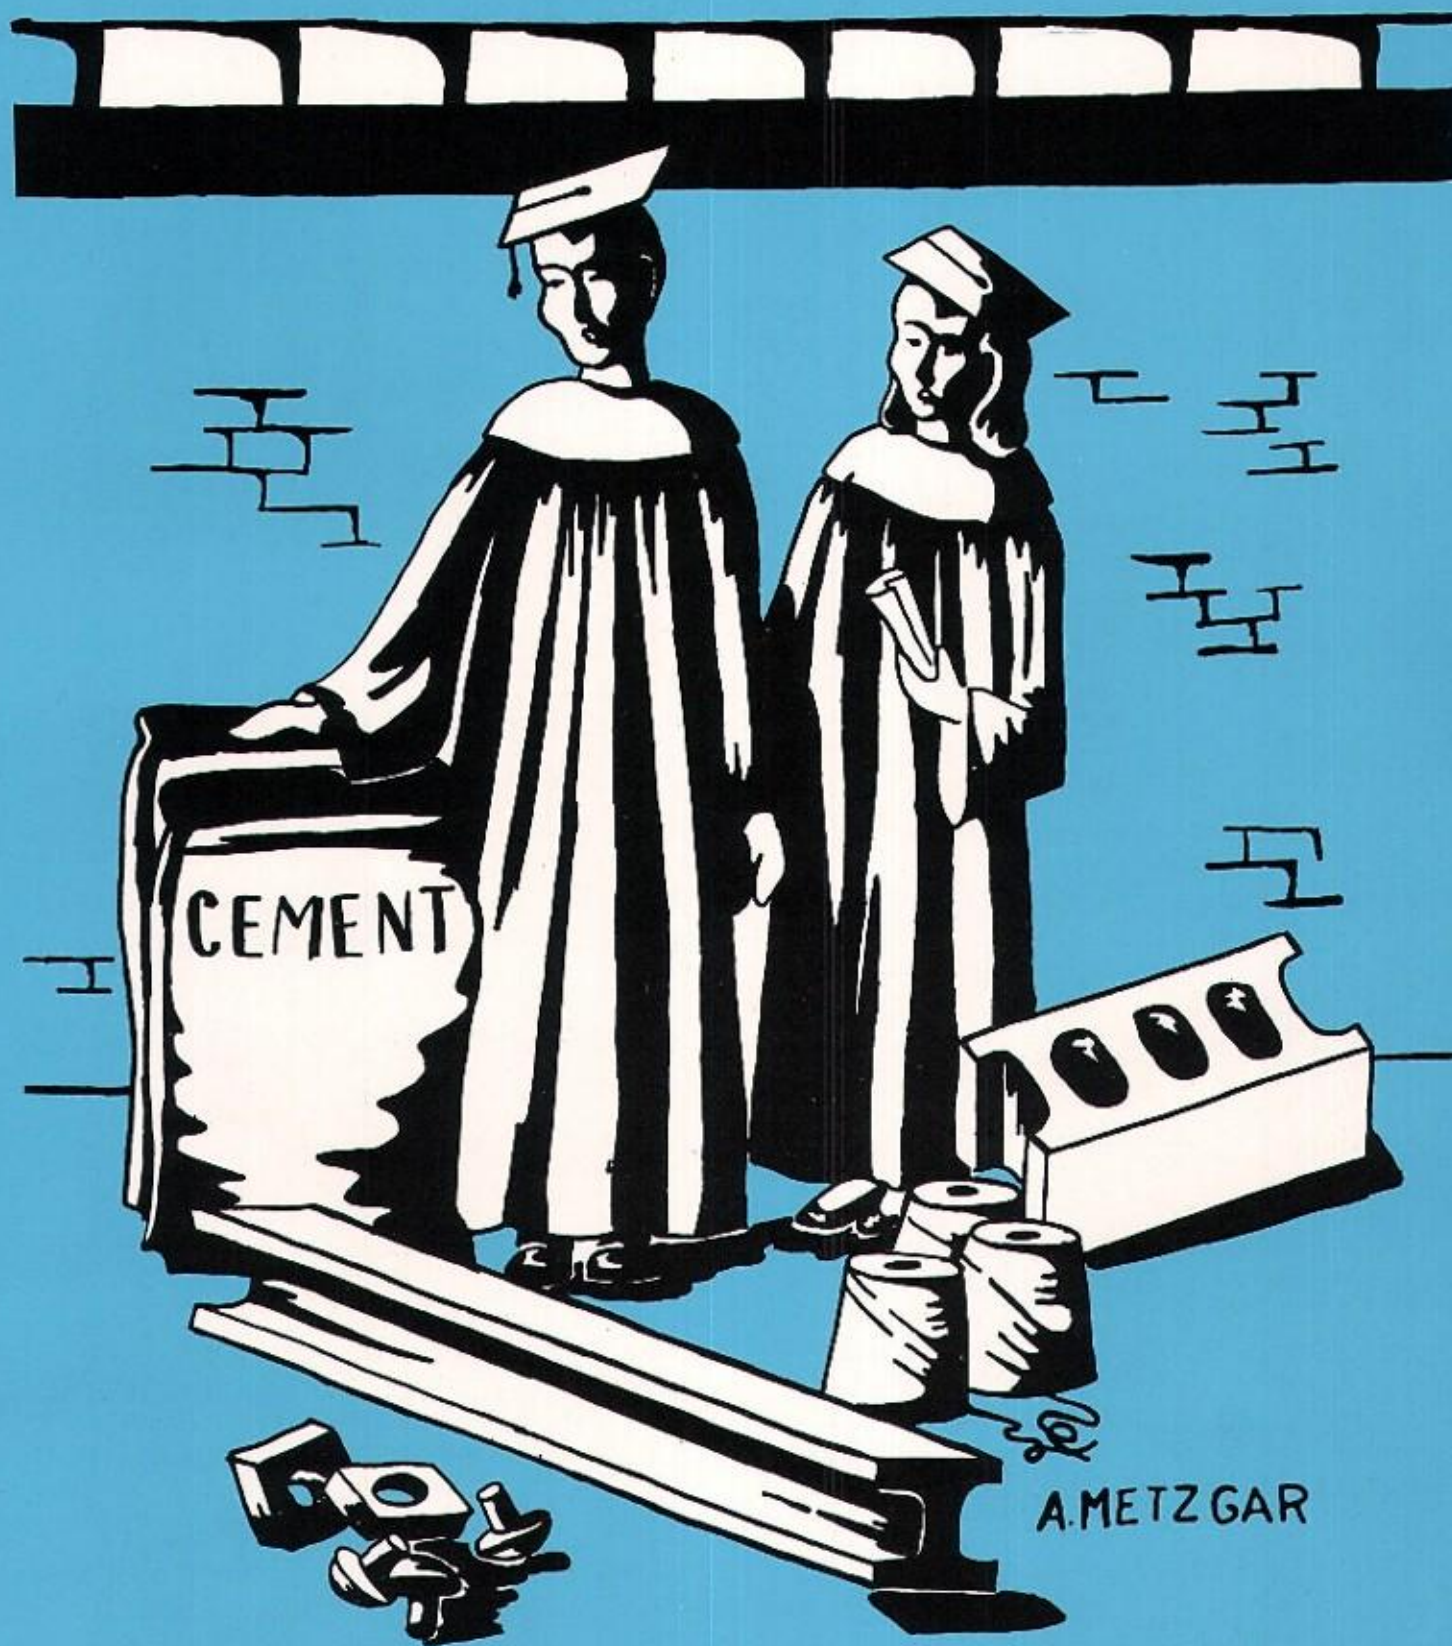

Leon Brong, member of the Class of 1925, presented a vocal solo "With a Little Bit of Luck."

Attorney Charles Shimer presents the Alumni Day speech.

A vocal solo was presented by Cecilia Snyder.
